HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

A fire in the Thrall block in Rutland Monday caused damage of $1,500.

Miss Alice Spencer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Spencer of Brattleboro, died Sunday in the hospital of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, where she was studying to become a professional nurse. Influenza was the cause of her demise. Miss Spencer was born in Brattleboro in 1894 and had had a particularly bright future. It was in 1916 that she decided to take a nurses' training course and ended at its completion to do Red Cross nursing.

LET TURKEYS FATTEN.

Before Killing Them for Food, Says Food Administration.

With the advent of the annual turkey season, the following pertinent suggestions from the food administration are of especial interest to farmers and breeders at this time.

"The turkey is still a wild bird. All the efforts of the farmer and breeder have failed to domesticate this wonderer into a barnyard dependent that puts on fat at the whim of the owner. A chicken will put feed into fat at almost any age and at any time the crop is kept filled with the right kind of feed.

"The young turkey, however, is a long-legged, bug hunter until the winter hatch of feathers is put on and nature suggests that it is time to store up a reserve for rigorous weather. Turkeys will put on weight rapidly and economically at that season and raisers should take advantage of it.

"This, too, is the season when fields provide plenty of feed that would otherwise go to waste and, in the case of weed seeds, would do damage to future crops.

"Now, when we have need for every ounce of food that can be put into form for human consumption, whether ground for mills or gizzards, it is the soundest economy to let the young turkey live through the fall bug-and-seed-hunting season.

"A young gobbler that weighs ten pounds in October will weigh twelve or thirteen sixty days later if given a little extra feed along toward the end of that period. A hen in the same time will fill out from seven pounds to nine or ten. Such satisfactory gains can be made at no other time in the bird's life. It is the season when nature is preparing for winter. The turkey hasn't learned to depend on the farmer's grain bins.

"The United States food administration suggests that in order to take advantage of this favorable season for putting on gains that no young turkey weighing less than six pounds should be marketed. Young gobblers should be of sufficient size to dress at least eight pounds before being sold. Let the turkeys develop and grow fat."

CULLING DEMONSTRATION.

Conducted By A. L. Smith, Poultry Specialist from Washington, D. C.

Delayed by the epidemic, we are a little late for fall culling of non-layers, but there is still time to eliminate the home hens that will not produce eggs this winter.

Plan to attend one of the demonstration meetings as scheduled below. Mr. Smith will be able to give you many dollars' worth of information in this line.

The forenoon meetings will take place at 10 o'clock, and in the afternoon at 2 o'clock, except as noted in the case of G. H. Wood, and H. A. Vidal of Montpelier. All interested in poultry are invited to attend one of these meetings. Opportunity will be given for the discussion of all questions pertaining to poultry keeping and raising. Ladies are especially welcome.

The schedule.

Monday, Nov. 11, 4 p. m., G. H. Wood, Montpelier.

Tuesday, Nov. 12, 10 a. m., Wilbur Brown, Montpelier; 2 p. m., Harry Staple, Montpelier; 4 p. m., H. A. Vidal, Montpelier.

Wednesday, Nov. 13, 10 a. m., E. W. Wood, Montpelier.

The Rival of Butter.

In these days of increasing cost of living, when such a staple food as butter has climbed the price-ladder to around 60c a pound, it is pleasant to find that the regular dairy product is not the only thing we can spread on our bread and biscuits. Benefit Brand "Sweet Nut" Margarine is the logical follower of butter and has already taken the place of it in thousands of our best families. This new table luxury costs only 32c a pound at the Direct Importing Co.'s yellow front store, 40 No. Main street, Barre, where Benefit Brand Tins, Cakes and Groceries are sold at wholesale prices. The price seems to be about the only thing that's different from good butter. Try it the next time you need butter and let the family decide. Look for our store in your town.—Adv.

Miss Lillian H. Welch, Bakersfield, Sent By Hawaiian Red Cross Branch.

Bakersfield, Nov. 6.—Miss Lillian H. Welch, who has been teaching in Oahu college, Honolulu, for the past year and a half, has been chosen by the American Red Cross at Washington to go to France as a canteen worker and to help in reconstruction work. Oahu college has granted her a leave of absence for this work, and she is sent directly by the Hawaiian chapter of the Red Cross and by a wealthy resident of Honolulu.

On her way Miss Welch expects to have a few days with her mother, Mrs. A. C. Sinclair, and hopes to have time to give talks in the neighboring towns on the Hawaiian islands, their customs, people, flowers, fruits and music. She knows the islands well, as she has visited each one thoroughly, traveling by boat, automobile, horseback, motorcycle and hiking.
